Exercise 25A:

1. An tug thu an t-uisge-beatha leat?
2. Thug Seònaid an càr a-mach leatha a-raoir.
3. Thug mi dhut am peann gorm an-diugh sa mhadainn.*
4. Thug Calum an iuchair dhachaigh.

*Some variations in word order are possible here: dhut could appear after gorm and an-diugh sa mhadainn could be reversed to sa mhadainn an-diugh.

Exercise 25B:

1. Leam.
2. Leat.
3. Leis.

7. Asta.

Exercise 25C:

1. I took the big bed to the new house, but it was too big.*
2. Did you say that you took the little bed to the new house?
3. No. Did you go to the new house yourself yet?
4. No; I was too busy. My mother went to the house, though.

5. When are we going to the new house? I don't remember.
6. I'll see you next week.

*We could translate this as: 'I brought the big bed to the new house', although the context of the other sentences suggest that the speaker is not currently in the house, so 'took' probably makes more sense.

Exercise 25D:

1. Cairteal gu ceithir feasgar.
2. Dà uair sa mhadainn.
3. Cairteal an dèidh sia feasgar.
4. Ochd uairean feasgar.

Answers to Unit 29 Exercise

Exercise 29:

When Douglas reached the shop, Sheila was there already. He saw that she was greatly enjoying the shop. She put a big red hat on, and she looked in the mirror. Douglas went to her and looked at her hat. He smiled.

“Are you taking the mickey out of me?” she asked him.

“No, no,” he said, putting up his hands. “I’m only kidding.”

She looked at him.

“Do you,” she said, “have money in your pocket?”

“I always have money in my pocket,” he said; and, then, quietly, “until you see me anyway.”

Douglas gave her the money, and Sheila bought the new hat.

They went to another shop. In that shop, Sheila saw another hat.

“Oh,” she said. “Look at that! What do you think of that?”

Douglas put his hand in his pocket again and took out his wallet.
